APPENDIX VI

THE SALIENT FEATURES OF BILLS PASSED
THE KERALA REVENUE RECOVERY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2007

At present revenue recovery requisition is sent to the Collector of the District in which the demand arose. Many of the Public Sector Corporations have their head offices at Thiruvananthapuram and they send their requisitions to the Collector, Thiruvananthapuram, as the “demand arose” at the head offices of the Corporations at Thiruvananthapuram. This causes much difficulties to the Collector, Thiruvananthapuram and to the authorities of the Public Sector Undertakings. Therefore, the Government decided to amend the Kerala Revenue Recovery Act, 1968 so as to enable the requisitioning authorities to send the requisition to the Collector of the District where the defaulter or his surety resides or holds property.

2. As per section 72 of the Kerala Revenue Recovery Act, 1968 every question relating to Revenue Recovery shall be determined not by suit but by the order of the Commissioner of Land Revenue, where the Collector is a party, and by the Collector in other cases, provided a suit may be brought in a civil court on the ground of fraud. But section 81 of the Act provides that nothing in the said Act shall be held to prevent parties aggrieved by any decision or order passed or proceedings taken under the Act for arrears due, from suing the Government in the civil court. There is an anomaly between sections 72 and 81 of the Act regarding civil court’s jurisdiction. The civil courts, inspite of the general bar under section 72 are entertaining suits against every question relating to revenue recovery and granting stay orders which has caused major set back in the collection of huge arrears. It has been decided to amend the Act so that only after availing of the remedies provided under the statute, the aggrieved can move a civil court in case, where revenue recovery action has been initiated.

3. The Government have also decided to incorporate provisions in the Kerala Revenue Recovery Act, 1968 for the realization of collection charges, from all the institutions and autonomous bodies on whose behalf recoveries are being made by the Government with effect from 27th day of February 1980.
